

Heneiddio'n Dda
yng Nghymru

Ageing Well
in Wales

What is it	Swansea Dementia Supportive Community Gala Concert A concert celebrating Swansea being recognised as the first city in Wales to be working to become dementia friendly.
Where was it	Brangwyn Hall, Swansea
Why was it interesting	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Attended by over 600 people.</li> <li>• Compered by TV presenter Beti George.</li> <li>• Performers included:             <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Welsh soprano Rebecca Evans</li> <li>• Pontarddulais Male Choir</li> <li>• Local youth choir Ariosa Singers</li> <li>• Musical Memories choir, comprised of local people living with dementia, their carers and families.</li> <li>• Cellist Sharon Davies</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
Who was involved	Swansea Dementia Supportive Community, Grŵp Gwalia, and Swansea City Council
Benefits for older people	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Key telephone numbers were provided in the Programme to help those living with dementia, and their carers, in Swansea</li> <li>• Information on display in the Foyer</li> <li>• Public show of support for those affected by dementia</li> <li>• A fun evening of music and singing in a glamorous setting, accessible to those living at home and in care homes</li> </ul>
Contact Details	Hannah Davies, Dementia Friendly Swansea  chair.swansea@dementiasupportivecommunity.org.uk  www.dementiafriendlyswansea.org.uk            07599 909 438